HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

Buckle Up

Every game in this book is built for two players, a flat lap, and one pencil you'll probably have to share.

No pieces to lose under the seat. No timer except the drive itself. A few games ask for scissors — we gave you a fold-only way to play those too, for when scissors aren't an option at 70 miles an hour.

Score sheets are built into every spread. Play best-of-three. Loser picks the next game.

Dots and Boxes

Take turns drawing one line between two neighboring dots. Complete the fourth side of a box and it's yours — go again. Most boxes when the grid is full wins.

Tic-Tac-Toe, Best of Five

Classic rules, five boards in a row. Alternate who goes first each round.
First player to win three boards takes the match.

Five in a Row

Take turns marking a square with X or O on the big grid. First to line up five in a row — across, down, or diagonal — wins.

Fleet Hunt

Each player secretly marks 5 ships on their own grid (in the back of the book), without showing the other. Call out coordinates to hunt — a hit means go again.

License Plate Bingo

Cross off a square every time you spot that state or country on a license plate. First to five in a row calls 'Bingo' and wins the round.

Red car	Cow	Gas station	Motorcycle	Bridge
License plate from far away	Water tower	Dog in a car	Road work sign	Rest stop
Truck with a trailer	Church steeple	FREE	Billboard	Bicycle
Train tracks	Horse	Flag	Tunnel	Fast food sign
Windmill or solar panel	Convertible	Hay bales	Someone waving	Roundabout

Hangman Relay

Player 1 thinks of a word and draws blanks. Player 2 guesses letters — each wrong guess adds a piece to the gallows. Swap roles after every word.

Rock-Paper-Scissors Tournament

Best of three per round, fill in winners as you climb the bracket. Great for settling literally any argument in the car.

MASH

Draw a spiral, pick a random number of loops. Fill in the categories, then count around the circle by that number, crossing out choices until one remains in each.

M A S H

Number of kids: 0 / 1 / 2 / 3+

Category Sprint

Pick a letter (close your eyes and point at the alphabet strip). Both players race to fill every category with a word starting with that letter. First done — or most after two minutes — wins.

Letter: _____

Animal

Food

Country

Name

Movie or show

Thing in this car

Mystery Dot-to-Dot

Connect the dots in number order to reveal what's hiding. No peeking at the answer key until you're done.

Sprouts

Draw 3 dots. Take turns connecting any two dots (or a dot to itself) with a line, then add a new dot on that line. No line may cross another, and no dot may have more than 3 lines. Last player to move wins.

Word Ladder Race

Change the top word into the bottom word by swapping one letter at a time, making a real word at every step. Fewest rungs wins the round.

COLD

WARM

Alphabet Spotting

Find each letter A to Z, in order, on signs and plates outside the window. Say it out loud and cross it off. First to Z wins — no skipping ahead.

A	B	C	D	E	F	G
H	I	J	K	L	M	N
O	P	Q	R	S	T	U
V	W	X	Y	Z

Fold-Only Fortune Teller

No scissors needed — just eight folds turn this page into a working fortune teller. Fold lines and instructions are printed for you.

Road Trip Bingo

Cross off a square every time you spot that item out the window. First to five in a row wins the round — then clear your board and go again.

Red car	Cow	Gas station	Motorcycle	Bridge
License plate from far away	Water tower	Dog in a car	Road work sign	Rest stop
Truck with a trailer	Church steeple	FREE	Billboard	Bicycle
Train tracks	Horse	Flag	Tunnel	Fast food sign

Four in a Row

Take turns marking the lowest open square in any column. First to line up four in a row — any direction — wins.

Draw & Guess Relay

Pick a word from the list without showing your partner. You have 60 seconds to draw it — no letters, no numbers. Guess right, you both score a point.

Would You Rather: Debate Edition

Pick a card, pick a side, and defend it for 30 seconds. The other player is the judge — switch roles each round. Best argument, not best answer, wins.

Would you rather ride in a car with no music, or no air conditioning?

Would you rather the trip be 2 hours too long, or 2 hours too short?

Would you rather pick every song, or never pick a song again?

Would you rather stop every hour, or never stop at all?

Would you rather sit in the middle seat the whole trip, or hold everyone's snacks?

Would you rather have unlimited snacks or unlimited legroom?
