15-Minute Micro-Adventures

Missions Built to Finish Before the Moment Passes dead time isn't dead.

HOW THIS WORKS

Before You Begin

The bus is late. The kettle's boiling. The meeting hasn't started yet. Most of a day is made of these small gaps — and most of us spend them staring at a phone. This book is for the other option.

This book works in one move:

MISSION Each page gives you one small thing to do, right where you already are. No setup, no supplies, no leaving early. Just look, notice, or act — then log it and get back to your day.

Missions are tagged by where they work best:

-  IN works indoors — home, office, waiting room
-  OUT works outdoors — street, park, bus stop
-  ANY works absolutely anywhere

The stars tell you how much attention a mission asks for:

- ★☆☆ easy — barely slows you down
- ★★★☆☆ some effort — you'll have to actually pay attention
- ★★★★★ a real challenge — takes the whole gap, maybe longer

No mission takes longer than the gap you're already standing in. Start whenever. Stop whenever it's done.

Find three things within reach that are the same color.

LOG

☐ done

Strike up a two-sentence conversation with a stranger about the weather.

LOG

☐ done

Find the oldest object visible from where you're standing.

LOG

☐ done

Write down a full conversation you can overhear, word for word, for one minute.

LOG

☐ done

Close your eyes for 60 seconds and count every distinct sound.

LOG

☐ done

Find the smallest object in the room and guess its story.

LOG

☐ done

Find a person wearing your favorite color and silently thank them.

LOG

☐ done

Rearrange three objects on a nearby surface into a small sculpture.

LOG

☐ done

Count how many different modes of transportation pass in two minutes.

LOG

☐ done

Name five things you can see that are man-made.

LOG

☐ done

Name five things you can see that occur in nature.

LOG

☐ done

Find an object that's been in the same place so long nobody notices it anymore.

LOG

☐ done

Find the tallest thing in view. Guess its height out loud.

LOG

☐ done

Text someone a compliment you've been meaning to send.

LOG

☐ done

Find something in the room older than you are.

LOG

☐ done

Follow a single cloud with your eyes until it changes shape.

LOG

☐ done

Come up with a two-word nickname for a stranger nearby, kept to yourself.

LOG

☐ done

Find a smell in the room and try to name it exactly.

LOG

☐ done

Find a plant growing somewhere it wasn't planted on purpose.

LOG

☐ done

Predict what the next person to walk by will be wearing. Check.

LOG

☐ done

Count the light sources in the room.

LOG

☐ done

Find a shadow and guess what time it is from its length.

LOG

☐ done

Think of the first three words that come to mind. Write them down.

LOG

☐ done

Find a sound you can't identify. Guess three possible sources.

LOG

☐ done

Memorize the exact position of five objects.
Look away. Recall them.

LOG

☐ done

Find a bird. Watch it until it moves.

LOG

☐ done

Notice the last thing you touched before this page. Describe its texture.

LOG

☐ done

Find something in the room you've never really looked at closely.

LOG

☐ done

Guess the age of the oldest tree or building in sight.

LOG

☐ done

Take one full minute to just breathe and do nothing else.

LOG

☐ done

Find something that makes a satisfying sound when you tap it.

LOG

☐ done

Find a crack in the pavement shaped like something.

LOG

☐ done

Give the next stranger you see a one-word title, like a job description.

LOG

☐ done

Write a six-word story about wherever you are right now.

LOG

☐ done

Find the newest object in the room.

LOG

☐ done

Look for a color you didn't expect to see outside today.

LOG

☐ done

Find something within reach that's cold to the touch.

LOG

☐ done

Guess how many objects are in the room without counting on your fingers.

LOG

☐ done

Find a person walking with a purpose and imagine where they're headed.

LOG

☐ done

Find the quietest sound you can hear right now.

LOG

☐ done

Find a pattern repeating somewhere nearby — tiles, fabric, wallpaper.

LOG

☐ done

Stand still for one minute and notice everything that moves.

LOG

☐ done

Think of a question you've never asked someone you know well. Save it for later.

LOG

☐ done

Find an object you could describe without naming its actual use.

LOG

☐ done

Find something you'd only see at this exact time of day.

LOG

☐ done

Write down the exact time. Guess what you'll be doing in exactly one hour.

LOG

☐ done

Find something soft within arm's reach.

LOG

☐ done

Find two people who seem to know each other. Guess how.

LOG

☐ done

Notice one thing that's the same about today and yesterday.

LOG

☐ done

Find an object and imagine its entire life before it got here.

LOG

☐ done

Find a piece of litter and imagine one honest story for how it got there.

LOG

☐ done

Name a smell you associate with exactly where you are right now.

LOG

☐ done

Find the brightest object in the room.

LOG

☐ done

Watch traffic — foot or vehicle — for one minute. Guess the average speed.

LOG

☐ done

Find something within reach that reminds you of a place you've never been.

LOG

☐ done

Find an object that doesn't belong to you but you wish did.

LOG

☐ done

Find a window and guess what's on the other side without looking.

LOG

☐ done

Hold completely still and let someone else move first. Notice who does.

LOG

☐ done

Find something you could fix in under ten seconds.

LOG

☐ done

Find the wind. Which direction is it coming from?

LOG

☐ done

Find one thing that's exactly the temperature you'd expect it to be.

LOG

☐ done

Find an object and invent a rule for how it must always be used.

LOG

☐ done

Find a puddle, drain, or gutter and guess where the water goes.

LOG

☐ done

Notice the last thing that made you laugh, even a little.

LOG

☐ done

Find something in the room that's a gift from someone.

LOG

☐ done

Follow one person's footsteps with your eyes until they're out of sight.

LOG

☐ done

Find something you're grateful is nearby right now.

LOG

☐ done

Find the object closest to the door. Guess who touches it most.

LOG

☐ done

Find a sign and read it as if it were a poem.

LOG

☐ done

Notice three sounds happening at once.
Name the loudest, then the faintest.

LOG

☐ done

Find something you could hide in one hand.

LOG

☐ done

Watch a vehicle until it turns a corner or disappears from view.

LOG

☐ done

Find something that's been the same color your whole life.

LOG

☐ done

Guess the last time someone cleaned the space you're in.

LOG

☐ done

Find the shortest shadow in view.

LOG

☐ done

Think of one thing you're looking forward to today. Say it out loud, quietly.

LOG

☐ done

Find the object you'd grab first if you had to leave in ten seconds.

LOG

☐ done

Find a stranger's routine in progress and guess what happens next in it.

LOG

☐ done

Notice how your body feels right now, without changing anything about it.

LOG

☐ done

Look at the time. In exactly two minutes, notice what's different.

LOG

☐ done

That's the gap filled.

There's another one coming. There always is.
